IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MEMBERS
TEMPORARY CLOSURE OF THE GOLF CLUB – COVID-19 ISSUES

Further to various other communications issued by the Club in relation to the COVID-19, the Management Committee further wishes to notify Members as follows:

In view of the Government's directive through the Ministry of Health on April 7th 2020, that golf clubs remain closed as per the raft of safety measures against the spread of coronavirus;

AND, following clarification of the Government's directive by the KGU, the Management has taken the following measures:

1. Effective the date of this NOTICE, the golf course remains CLOSED EXCEPT for purposes of individual exercises including walking, jogging and/or golfing that SHALL NOT have more than two persons per team. There will be no further organized tournaments;
2. Members are therefore advised to collect their golf-kits from the Club by April 9th, 2020;
3. Henceforth, there shall be no access to the changing rooms. They shall remain closed until further notice;
4. As advised in a previous notice, the Club will operate STRICTLY on take-away basis. Members are therefore advised to call and place their orders no later than 5.00PM and collect them at the reception by 5.30PM. Upon request, the Club shall avail home deliveries.
5. Carwash services remain available but closing at 5.30PM.
6. That a kitty to support caddies will be established under the auspices of the Golf Captain. Members are urged to kindly support the initiative once the Captain provides direction.

Members are requested to respect and comply with these directives for the safety of everyone.
